Re: Great Western Ins. Co. v. Mark Graham, et al., Case No. 18-06249 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

We represent Plaintiff Great Western Insurance Company (“Great Western”) in the above-captioned matter. We write in response to the letter application of counsel for defendant Mark Graham and the Blue Defendants¹ dated September 13, 2018 (Dkt No. 58), the letter application of counsel for defendant John Drake dated September 14, 2018 (Dkt. No. 60), and the letter application of counsel for defendant Donald Solow and the Cygnet Defendants² dated September 17, 2018 (Dkt. No. 61). We draw the Court’s attention to our letter application dated September 12, 2018 (Dkt. No. 56).

Great Western remains concerned that Mr. Graham and the Blue Defendants, and now Mr. Solow and the Cygnet Defendants, having previously agreed to September 28, 2018, as the deadline for them to answer or otherwise plead, are engaged in a continuation of the obstructionism Great Western has experienced since the Fall of 2016 regarding the well over $100 million of its missing funds that are at issue. See Dkt. Nos. 5, 56, 56-1, 56-2, 56-3, 65-4, and 56-5. However, Great Western agrees with Mr. Drake’s suggestion that some form of pre-motion scheduling conference would be of benefit to the Court and to the parties, and therefore

² The “Cygnet Defendants” refers to defendants Regatta Holdings LLC, Cygnet 001 Master Trust, Cygnet 001 Master Trust Series 2011-A, Cygnet 001 Master Trust Series 2011-C, and Cygnet 001 Master Trust Series 2013-A, which are all controlled by defendant Donald Solow.

Great Western will no longer object to a short continuance beyond September 28, 2018, for defendants to answer or otherwise plead. In particular:

- First, as noted, Great Western agrees with the suggestion of a pre-motion scheduling conference. Great Western respectfully suggests that such pre-motion scheduling conference be held telephonically. If the Court prefers to hold the conference in person, I would respectfully request that it be set for Monday, September 24, 2018, so that I can travel to New York for the conference.
- Second, the Court has diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, the basis of which was pled in the Complaint (Dkt. No. 5, ¶¶ 8-29). Great Western is prepared to amend its complaint to expressly reference 28 U.S.C. § 1332. Additionally, the Complaint already expressly references that this Court has subject matter jurisdiction of the matters complained of pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 18 U.S.C. § 1961.
- Third, Great Western is reviewing the arguments raised by certain defendants regarding Great Western's three RICO counts, the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act, and the nature and extent of the impact on this action of the SEC's findings against Mr. Graham and two of the Blue Defendants (Dkt. No. 56-1). Great Western agrees that the SEC's findings regarding the misconduct by Mr. Graham and others with respect to Great Western's funds is significant, but defendants' discussion of their cited case law appears to be materially flawed.

Great Western thanks the Court for its consideration and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Gerard D. Kelly
